

I strongly feel that a broadcast flag to limit recording rights for consumers will further slow adoption of HDTV, cause even more confusion among consumers when adopting HDTV, and provides no value to the people of the U.S. who are granting networks the use of the limited RF spectrum via the FCC.